Heart Flow Concert

with
Paul Armitage
9th July 2005, Daylesford

As the heavenly music begins the magnificent presiding Angel of the Christ enters and stands within Paul's aura. Many smaller beautiful golden and rose Angels of the Christ take up their positions in a large circle around the Lady Tarajyoti Room. Joining them the Angels of Lady Yasodhara, resplendent in their rose light, form a spiral of Living Light, a stairway to the Christ – the Way of the Heart. Together they form this Path, which leads from the worlds of darkness to the Worlds of Light, to the Christ Maitreya. Rapid pulsations of light are seen within the aura of the presiding Angel, as its wings radiate Heart Flow to the waiting Christed and Yasodhara Angels. With their glorious wings outstretched, tip to tip, they send Maitreya's Heartlight out into the world.

Devas of the Seven Rays in all their glory descend from their celestial realms, in perfect accord with the music. Iridescent Angels of the Holy Spirit, luminous green, pink and violet shimmer as they send their Light into the world. Sentinels of Hope, from the hearts of Ladies Mary and Hope appear. Clothed in raiment of the purest pale blue and white they take up their positions North, South, East and West sending the Light of Hope to a suffering humanity. Angels of Truth and Justice carrying golden trumpets, descend the Ladder of Justice into the world of matter. In service to Joan of Arc and Lady Pallas Athena, they form a translucent green five pointed Star of Justice.

Angels of Love and Forgiveness from the hearts of Ladies Nada and Magdalene enter, radiating all hues of rose, deepest pink, ruby and white. Emanating love they move ripple-like dissolving and conquering all fear and hatred in their path. Standing in the shape of a rose they let loose love, which pulsates out to humanity transmuting hatred into joy, the atomic substance of all they touch is redeemed. Molecules of darkness all over the planet begin to spin, rapidly ascending into the light of Love. On behalf of Ladies Portia and Pallas Athena, the resplendent Angels of Majesty appear, emanating a golden and violet Light. They stand as pillars within the Temple of the Christ, the Sanctuary of His Heart, for all who seek to enter Love. Within this Sanctuary the Spiritual Hierarchy meditates; seated in silent conclave, They send their healing Light, Love and Power to humanity and the earth.

Cosmic Light descends as the Angels of Sirius intervene, on behalf of the Cosmic Christ, for Earth's rebirth. Sounding their note of protection, the creatures of the sea dolphins and whales, Star and Intergalactic Beings, all respond to their call. Cosmic Blue Light from the Sirian Conclave streams forth. A Star of Hope and Comfort appears above the earth. Angels of the Spirit of Resurrection, from the Heart of Lord Jesus, descend in all their fiery Light. They lift the Children of the Heart above the astral plane. Radiating brilliant white, gold and violet light, they lift, lift, lift them into the higher spheres. With their wings of Light they restructure the molecules within our auras, as we are lifted to the inner levels.

To the powerful strains of Paul's inspired music, Angels of the Avatar of Will enter. Sweeping in waves of deepest blue light across the continents and oceans, all surrender before them. Within their awe inspiring panorama the Diamond Light of Lord Jesus is clearly visible. All who serve the Christ rally to them, surrendering to their Love. The Angels of Forgetfulness enter like wispy moonlit clouds. On behalf of the Lady Isis they descend from Venus to our beloved earth and lift the Children of the Heart into the Motherships returning speedily from whence they came. In the Realms of Forgetfulness, within the bellies of the Motherships, the Children orbit Venus . . . waiting, slumbering, waiting.

Meanwhile earth transforms; She heaves, convulses purges and rebirths. While this occurs the Angels of Restoration, perform their mission of mercy, the healing of our Earth for the Cosmic Christ. With their mighty wings they move like phoenixes across all oceans and continents, restoring balance, order, calm and life to the new Earth. The Rising Light of Earth, Lord Maitreya Buddha can be seen slowly making His ascent from deep within the earth into the realms of the New Day Dawning.

Healing of humanity and the earth

second stage of the concert

The majestic Angels of Justice, from Lord Michael's army stand forth, taking up their positions as protectors of Gaia. In service to the Christ they banish negativity, creating Safe Havens for the Children of the Heart all over the earth. These Havens, established within the auric fields of the Lords and Ladies of Light, form a protective six pointed Star of David around our planet. Angels of the White Tara are seen comforting souls who are leaving earth, lifting them to the inner levels. They work to clear fear, stabilizing the astral plane. Angels of Grace, pale blue and starlike, move all over the earth easing suffering wherever they find it.

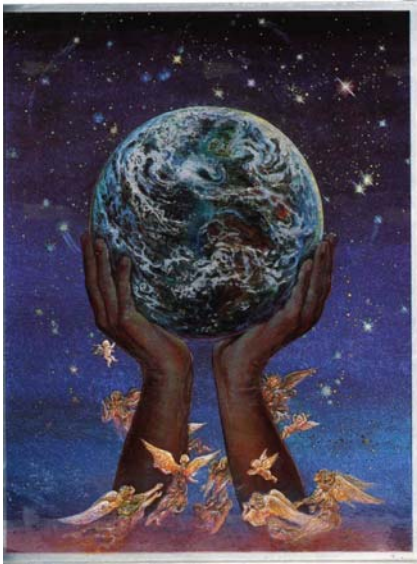

A new note sounds as the Blue StarLight of Sirius streams towards the earth; within it the Heart of the Christ is revealed. From Sirius to the Earth His heart descends becoming the Rising Light of Earth, the Risen Christ. His Heartstream expands, manifesting as a vision of light within the hearts of the Divine Mothers. Deeply His Heartlight enters all aspects of humanity, they divide into three groups. The Children of the Mind are separated from the Children of the Heart and their world's forever part. A few Lighted souls from earth work closely with the Christ, to separate the Children of the Mind from the Children of the Heart. Maitreya's Heart is seen within the Tabernacle of Shamballa. Christ's loving presence streams all over earth as He stands upon the physical realm. Humanity are held within the comforting embrace of the Divine Mothers.

The light of soul and Spirit, the I AM Presence, appears above the Children of the Heart entering into their hearts vanquishing darkness, through the power of love. Our Godself stands revealed in all its glory. A sphere of Rainbow Light, the Christed Ones, surrounds the Heart of the Risen Earth.

The Christ child lives!

Earth and humanity are one!

Peace, in the form of millions of beautiful white doves enfolds the Children of the Heart, as community life sustains all. The music intones a new phase as Darkness rises again. The Forces of Light battle the Forces of Darkness. For a while the light dims. Slowly, slowly Light returns, it triumphs and resurrects upon the physical plane.

The New Day Dawns on earth!

The Holy Ones stand in Their resplendent Rainbow Light around Maitreya Buddha, the Rising Light of Earth.

Earth has risen!

Her birth heralded by millions of Ascension Angels from Venus. Life everlasting overtakes the planet; once again She has become a Garden of Eden. Angels of the Buddha Yasodhara dance and sing for joy, as their glorious Buddha light heals all.

Buddha! Buddha! Buddha!

The Risen Lady Isis is revealed as the New Venus, Rose of Ascension, Mother of Earth.

www.paularmitagemusic.com Paul's musical portraits are spontaneously performed compositions. They are very dynamic and harmonically rich. He uses the latest digital, electronic musical equipment creating a panorama of expansive, gorgeous sound tones. Beautifully layered and orchestrated, each portrait approaches the complexity of a composed, symphonic work, yet, is smooth and elegant in its simplicity.
